Cana.

Classical in shape. Versatile to use.
Sustainable materials.

Cana is much more than a bench. Cana is the last word in versatility. If you fold out the three backrest sections, the simple bench becomes an elegant two-seater that is ideal for casual discussions in private.

The seat can also be pulled out to make Cana a comfortable place for power napping and an integral part of modern working life.

A solid-wood frame, laminboard, cushioning with a wool-fleece overlay and high-grade leather combine a sophisticated look with sustainable quality.

Whether you are receiving visitors, having a private chat or recharging your batteries – Cana combines a high level of comfort with a streamlined, purist look.

Design: wiege, Fritz Frenkler, Justus Kolberg

Function

Adjustable upholstered bench with backrest as a two-seater with armrests folded down, as a three-seater with armrests folded up and as a lounger when the seat is pulled out, ideal for informal meeting areas, such as receptions, foyers, lobbies, single offices or homes. When folded down, the armrests can be used to put things on.

Frame

Tubular steel, backrest bearer and hinge coated with a silver satin finish. Black polyamide glides for soft and hard floorings.

Seat

Solid beech frame with elastic membrane cover, coated black. Depth extendable from 78 to 90 cm. Cushioning with wool-fleece overlay.

Arm- and backrest

Laminboard with a maple, beech or walnut veneer, concealed solid beech lipping with a natural finish. Upholstered with a wool-fleece overlay. Armrests can be folded up.
